

The Federal Diary

Hill Opposition Likely
On Ike's Proposal
For 37,000 New Jobs

By Jerry Kluttz

WINNERS: Ten career executives are participating in Brookings Institution's first Federal executive fellowship program. They will carry out research project at the Institution's offices here from six months to a year. The winners:

Louis B. C. Fong of the Army's Diamond Ordnance Fuze Laboratory; Lloyd F. Jordan, Central Intelligence; Irving Kalikow, Army Audit Agency; Roland Kampmeier, TVA; Peter M. Keir, Federal Reserve; William P. Lehman, Budget Bureau; Harold H. Leich, CSC; John P. McKnight, and Murray G. Lawson, USIA, and Ben S. Stephansky, State.

COPYRIGHT